Kate.

She'd meet me at the garden gate
At early morn or evening late,
In rain or sunshine, sure as fate,
I always found my dearest Kate.

She loved me with a love as true
As e'er was given to mortals few;
And now that I am lost to view
She does each day that love renew.

I'd see it sparkling in her eyes
Like love's young dream from paradise.
She sees me, and with joyful cries,
Into my arms of love she flies.

Talk not to me of love so great
In knight or maid or knightly state,
No love so pure as that of Kate
That greets me at the garden gate.

This love for me so strong, so true,
Was not of maid with eyes of blue,
With golden hair or midnight hue,
For such a love is felt by few.

Then listen, reader, while I state
From whom this love for me awaits
From early morn to evening late
I always find at the garden gate.

'Tis but a dog, with heart so great
That none on earth can love like Kate.
And when I come, although 'tis late,
She's always at Bud Holderman's gate.

MATRIMONIAL.

Miss Edith Morrow and Mr. Frank B. Marksbury, popular young people of Lancaster, will be married June 9.

Miss Lora Bohon, the charming daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Bohon, of the West End, was married in Danville Saturday to Mr. J. F. Jeffers, of Louisville. She has frequently visited here and has many friends in and around Stanford. Mr. Jeffers is a prominent young business man of Louisville.

The engagement of Miss Tevis Carpenter, of Stanford, to Rev. Homer W. Carpenter, of Lima, O., is announced. The wedding will be a beautiful event of June. The news is of much interest here, where the bride-to-be is much loved and admired, and Mr. Carpenter attended college. Miss Carpenter is a beautiful young girl, charming and accomplished and is a frequent visitor here of Miss Patsy Prewitt, who will be her maid of honor. Mr. Carpenter is a graduate of Transylvania Bible College. He is personally very attractive and has a host of Kentucky friends who will be much interested in the news. He is now making his home in Lima, where he has charge of a church.—Advocate.

ENGLEMAN-KITCHEN.—On last Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, at Ashland, Miss Nannie Woods, daughter of Mrs. Annie Engleman, of this place, greatly surprised her friends and became the wife of Mr. Charles J. Kitchen, Jr., after a beautiful and most impressive ceremony said by the Rev. Felix Struve, of the M. E. Church, South. Miss Engleman, with her mother and sister, were visiting the groom's sisters, the Misses Kitchen, at the time of the marriage and not even the immediate families were aware of the fact, except the father of Mr. Kitchen, who preceded the happy pair to the Methodist parsonage and had everything arranged for the binding of two loving hearts together to go over life's fitful sea and to share each other's joys and sorrows. Miss Engleman is one of Stanford's most popular young ladies and enjoys a large acquaintanceship in this section among the social world, besides having a large and influential family connection. We know of no one who has left Stanford that will be more reluctantly given up than Miss Engleman by her many friends and admirers but who will, at the same time, wish for her all the happiness that this world can give to one of Cupid's loveliest and fairest daughters; while the groom is one of Ashland's rising young business men, being book-keeper for the large lumber interests of Vansant, Kitchen & Co., of that city, and who is a most excellent young man and is esteemed by all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance. The happy pair are cozily domiciled at the Ventura Hotel for the present, preparatory to going to housekeeping in the early summer. The INTERIOR JOURNAL joins their many friends in extending heartiest congratulations to the newly wedded couple and wishes for them all the happiness that can come to them. Mr. and Mrs. Kitchen will arrive Saturday to spend a week with relatives here.

Women Who Are Envied.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood, give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

The will of the late Henry H. Rogers, the Standard Oil millionaire, was admitted to probate at New York. Practically the entire estate, valued according to Wall Street estimates at between $50,000,000 and $75,000,000, will ultimately be divided among four children and their heirs. The only public bequest is one of $100,000 to the town of Fairhaven, Mass., Mr. Rogers' birthplace, to be used for school purposes.

GAINES BOBS UP AGAIN.

"COL." NOEL GAINES, who hankers after notoriety even as the hart after the water brook, is again enjoying the delight of occupying the center of the limelight. He will be remembered as the plaintiff in several libel suits, which he prosecuted in distant counties from which he and his defendants lived and before hostile judges to them, when the so-called Haly-Lassing letter, which he sprung on the public, was pronounced a forgery. This letter and his charges against democratic State officials were used by Willson and his gang in the last campaign and won immediate recognition for Gaines when the governor began to dish out the pie. He was given one place and another till now he bobs up as assistant to Inspector and Examiner Thatcher. In this capacity he made charges against Adjutant General Johnston's use of the military fund, which, according to Auditor James, were unwarranted. Resenting them as well as the examination of his office by Gaines, Gen. Johnston tendered his resignation. Perhaps charges of irregularities against the general's political course could be sustained, but there is not a man who knows him who could be made to believe other than that, in business and financial integrity the general is without reproach. Therefore any charges of official delinquency made by Gaines or any one else fall exceedingly flat, especially when the animosity is so apparent. Gov. Beckham, who has himself felt the "colonel's" poisoned darts, sees an effort also to criticize his administration, has an editorial in his State Journal in which he scores Gov. Willson for rewarding such a man and permitting him to cast aspersions upon the honor of such an official as Gen. Johnston. If no other evidence of the smallness of Gov. Willson's nature was manifested than the employment of a man whose only claim to preferment by a republican administration is that he would vilify the governor's predecessor, fully establish it. The INTERIOR JOURNAL predicts that like Gov. Beckham, Gov. Willson will regret that he gave aid and succor to him before he has been in office another 12 months.

The beef trust has raised the price of meat 20 per cent., making it higher by 50 to 100 per cent. than in the flush times of 1907. This rapacious concern, not content with its profits on meat is trying to control the shoe market. Ex-Gov. Douglas, of Massachusetts, says that unless Congress shall put hides on the free list the beef trust will have a monopoly on leather and in less than 10 years will have a monopoly on the boot and shoe manufacturing business. The trust now controls the leather trust and the 15 per cent. duty gives it an enormous advantage. There is no prospect of the tariff being taken off. On the contrary, it will likely be increased and the beef trust can roll in wealth while the poor get poorer in contributing to its coffers for necessities.

MR. ROOSEVELT calls himself a "faunal naturalist," the Africans call him "Trwano Tumbo," but Dr. Long says he is nothing more nor less than a nature fakir, a game catcher pure and simple, his only interest lying chiefly in the direction of blood, butchery and brutality. What any one wants to kill just for the fun of killing, we are unable to understand. It seems to be proof of a blood thirsty and cowardly nature.

It is said that Albert Charlton, who voted for Bradley over the democratic nominee for U. S. Senator, will not be a candidate for re-election from the Louisville district that he dishonored. However until we hear from his sponsor, Mr. Watterson, who so far has not repudiated him like he did McNutt, we shall not put our money on the proposition that he will not be a candidate. It all depends.

THE Louisville business men may resolve against State wide prohibition as they did last week, but the people will do the voting. The saloons themselves are responsible for their own undoing. Trying to dominate in politics and disregardful of law have made them odious in the sight of the majority, which has determined that they must go.

A THIRD grand jury has indicted Gov. Haskell, of Oklahoma, for conspiracy to defraud the government in the Muskogee town lot cases. The governor may be guilty, but we doubt it. The persistence of government sleuths seems to be the result of his row with Roosevelt, who set on foot an effort to either ruin or embarrass him.

THE man who put the comic opera, Florodora, on the stage, has been adjudged a bankrupt. The original sextet of beauties have all struck paying dirt, however. Evelyn Thaw, Nannie Patterson and the rest have been as continually in the lime light since, as they were while on the stage.

THE Brooklyn man who wrote 13,170 words on a postal card must have been very much out of a job. A busy man has no time for such a useless expenditure of energy.

MRS. CARRIE CHAPMAN CATT, president of the National W. C. T. U., evidently has it in for men. She says half of them she knows are robbers and the other half shrimps. It will be remembered that when Mr. Roosevelt said that he did not regard the woman suffrage question as important, this sweet little Catt bird called him "an old tree toad." Mrs. Catt seems to be a spiteful old feline, who doesn't help her cause by such expressions of ill temper and ill manners.

SENATOR BRADLEY'S speech in favor of the repeal of the six cents tax on leaf tobacco sold by the farmers, was a masterly one. He charged the American Tobacco Trust with being responsible for the development of the night rider by grinding the tobacco raiser to poverty. There is every reason for a repeal of the tax, but Aldrich will not permit it.

NEARLY every statesman you read about nowadays began life as a newsboy. The new republican Senator from Illinois, Lorimer, elected by the votes of democrats after a struggle lasting four months, was once a newsboy. The older statesmen graduated from rail splitting, canal driving and the like.

"ADAM GOD," the Kansas fanatic who killed a policeman, who interfered with his meetings, was given 25 years, and the people who doubt his power may well say as they did of old: "If thou be God, release thyself from these bonds."

JUDGE R. G. WILLIAMS won the democratic nomination for Commonwealth's attorney in the Kenton district, as his many friends and admirers in this section of Kentucky hoped and believed he would.

POLITICAL.

Senator Aldrich forced votes on the sugar and tobacco schedules with the usual result, the recommendations of the committee being sustained.

Theodore Roosevelt, who is at present the guest of Gov. Jackson, of Nairobi, has accepted an invitation to a public banquet to be given there in his honor Aug. 3.

President Taft has accepted honorary membership in the Associate Society of Chapin Post, Grand Army of the Republic, at Buffalo, N. Y., said to be the largest G. A. R. post in the world.

President Taft sent a message to Congress renewing the recommendation of President Roosevelt for the appropriation for participation of the United States in the Universal and Industrial Exposition to be held in Brussels in 1910.

Senator Bradley made a strong plea for the removal of the six-cent tax on tobacco in a speech delivered in the Senate. He declared that the growers were at the mercy of the trust and said that night-riding was due to the trust's oppression.

The Senatorial Committee met at Columbia and decided that L. T. Neat was the regular nominee and that his name should go under the log cabin. It is likely that Lilburn Phelps will carry the contest before the State Central Committee.

Under the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill the chairman of the Finance Committee hopes to increase the receipts of the treasury for 1911 about $94,000,000 above the receipts for 1908 and $32,000,000 in excess of those for 1907, and make books balance.—National Magazine.

Just after the Senate adjourned Senator Bailey, of Texas, and W. S. Manning, a representative of the New York Times, engaged in a fight. There was a reference to Mr. Bailey's characterization of the New York Times' writer as "an infamous liar" and too soon for bystanders to apprehend what it was all about Manning struck Bailey with his umbrella and the two men clinched. They were separated without injury.

Petitions are being circulated in McCracken, Ballard, Carlisle and Marshall counties, which compose the Second Senatorial district, urging Judge E. Barry, editor of the Benton Tribune, to run independently for the State Senate. It is understood that Barry will run if the number of signers is encouraging. Barry was recently defeated by W. V. Eaton, of Paducah, for the democratic nomination. He then publicly pledged his support to the nominee.

Chester Peavine

DESCRIPTION AND BREEDING.—Four years old, 16 hands, a bright bay with best of bone, conformation and action. Sired by Rex Peavine 1795, he by Rex McDonald 881. First dam Miss Madison 4984, he by Chester Dare 10, 2d dam by Peavine 85, 3rd dam by Stonewall Jackson 72.

NOTE.—This horse needs no introduction to the people of this county. He has been before the public since a two-year-old and his show record is known to all; suffice it to say, he was shown all over Kentucky last season by T. Sandie and met defeat only a few times. He went around no horse, showed every week against all ages in sweepstakes, races, and was never further back than second. He is a show horse under saddle. In harness he has won quite a number of roadster rings. He defeated all ages at Nicholasville in his roadster ring. You see from his breeding he has two crosses of Black Squirrel, two of Peavine, two of Stonewall Jackson. If you are looking for a fashionable saddle horse blood, here it is. See him and see him do and you will breed to him.

Will serve a limited number of mares at $20 to insure a living colt.

ALL PEAVINE.

Subject to Register.

This horse is three years old, a red sorrel, a good show horse and one that you will find anywhere. He is 15 1/2 hands high, was shown all over the State last year and was only defeated twice by two-year-old stallions—once under saddle and once in harness. Defeated both times by his half brothers. So you see he hasn't a bad record as a show horse. He is all his own kind, being sired by Rex Peavine 1795, 1st dam by Peavine 85, 2d dam by Warren Harris Denmark, 3rd dam by John Nossely. If you are looking for Peavine blood, here it is. Will be permitted to serve limited number of mares at $20 to insure a living colt.

It is a fine time and place will stand two good mule jacks at $5 to insure a living colt. These jacks need no advertising as they have made several seasons at this barn and every one knows them. Service fee due on all the above advertised stock when mare is sold, traded or bred to other stock. Due in all cases when colt is foaled.

DALMAS.

Bred by Col. Hall Anderson, McKinney, Ky.

This stallion is a dark bay, 4 years old, 16 hands 1 inch high, with best of bone, action, a very heavy mane and tail. Read his pedigree and you will see he is as well bred one as you can find in country.

Dalmas was sired by Cecilian Chief, 1st dam by Ullimus; 2d dam by Gill's Vermont; 3rd dam by Bay Dick; 4th dam by Bald Stockings.

NOTE.—In offering the services of this young stallion, I feel that he is what we need to improve our stock. He has breeding, size, bone, speed and action. He will get horses big enough to work, sell and also to make good mares. See him before you breed and you will breed to him. He is well enough bred to get trotters.

TERMS.—Will stand him at low price of $10 to insure a living colt. Service fee due when colt is foaled, mare traded, sold or bred to other stock.

At same time and place the two good mule jacks, Jim Porter and Brignolia. You all know how these jacks breed.

TERMS.—$5 to insure a living colt. Money due as with above advertised stock.

THE Journal of Education, Boston, Mass., published Prof. J. W. Ireland's splendid contribution to this paper, "Influence of Music on Citizenship," and made a most complimentary notice of it.

SEE THE KRAUSE RIDING CULTIVATOR.—It has everything on the market beat, in the way of a riding cultivator. The pivot axle is a practically two in one plow. Can plow as good on rolling land as on level. Don't fail to see it before buying. E. T. Pence.

SOMERSET.—Somerset was in her gala attire last week and the good little city was alive with people. The annual street fair was going on and Pulasians were on hand from Buck creek to the head waters of Fishing and from Burnside to Buncomb. Since the beautiful fountain and park have been built in the "square" there is not sufficient room for the street fair in town, so the fair grounds were pressed into service. Most of the shows were good and the free attractions were above the average. Somerset is moving along nicely and business is good, notwithstanding the fact that the division has been moved to Danville and not a great deal of work is being done in the shops. The stores have every appearance of prosperity, the banks are full of money and some building and lots of repairing is going on. The republican campaign for county offices is warming up and between now and June 12, when the primary will be held, there will be pulling and hauling galore. Seventy candidates for the various offices paid in and the ballot will be a large one. Our old countyman, Judge E. S. Gooch, is still holding down the office of city or police judge, to the satisfaction of good people and to the terror of evil doers. He is a candidate for re-election with splendid chances of winning. It would be a calamity to defeat such a satisfactory official. Somerset democrats are very desirous that Editor Cecil Williams, of the Times, win the secretaryship of the sub-committee which will have its headquarters at Lexington. He is well equipped for the place and is deserving of recognition.

MURPHY.—Mrs. S. E. Murphy, who lived here until some 12 years ago, died in New Mexico and the remains were brought here and interred in Buffalo cemetery at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after brief remarks at the grave by Rev.
